J. Edgar Hoover Will Stay

FBI Director 70 on New Year's Day

By LYLE C. WILSON

United Press International

President Johnson has told White House callers he hopes J. Edgar Hoover will continue as director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Johnson has said that he wants Hoover to direct the FBI at least as long as he remains in the White House.

That pleases Hoover, who enjoys vigorous good health. He has no desire to retire so long as he can be of service to his country. Sometime before Jan. 1, 1965, therefore, the President will sign an executive order waiving with respect to Hoover the requirement that FBI employes retire at age 70. Next New Year's Day will be the director's 70th birthday.

Hoover's age and the Federal retirement law had combined to arouse some speculation that the director's distinguished career would end with this year. There was a bit of wishful thinking in the speculation, no doubt, because left wingers of American politics declared open season on Hoover long ago.

Efforts to Retire

American Communists constantly have campaigned to retire Hoover. They had

Dear Sir:

~~NOTED~~
The Columbian Squires, which are the official youth organization of the Knights of Columbus, are sponsoring the annual Mid-Atlantic States regional conference in Arlington, Virginia on 25, 26, 27 September 1964.

Boys between the ages of thirteen and eighteen from the States of Delaware, Maryland, Louisiana, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia will be in attendance at this convention.

The Columbian Squires program is aimed at developing the leadership qualities of young men through its four point program of Spiritual, Social, Civic and Physical activities.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I wish to express my gratitude to you for your devoted service to our country. It is without doubt, that you and your associates have met your responsibilities without fear or favor in protection of law abiding citizens.

As the Grand Knight of the Marian Council #3757, Knights of Columbus, North Miami, Florida, I have learned that the F.B.I., Police instructors, and Community information speakers have provided a definite contribution to crime prevention and public awareness. Members of this council, who are law enforcement officers, have related that special agent Peter C. Clemente, of your Miami office has an excellent reputation for instruction in sex crimes. We would like to have special agent Clemente speak at one of our bi-weekly Thursday night meetings. Our meetings are regularly attended by policemen, school teachers, athletic coaches, counselors and lawyers. All of our members are vastly interested in helping prevent this fast-growings perversion to our society. The membership includes over 600 men and our meetings are regularly attendes by approximately 160 men. Prior announcement to this lecture would insure additional men at the meeting. We feel that special agent Clemente's talk would benefit our community.

I hope our request can be granted without any inconvenience.

Sincerely,
John Casey Brady, Grand Knight

SAC, New Haven, has forwarded for information a copy of the Supreme Council Proceedings of the Knights of Columbus held in Houston, Texas, during August, 1970. Page 176 of attached Proceedings sets forth resolution number 204 was recommended and adopted. It specifies that children of members of the Knights of Columbus may receive college educational benefits under certain conditions.

It was approved that the Board of Directors of the Knights of Columbus be authorized to arrange for payment from the Educational Trust Fund of such sums as may be necessary to insure a college education for children of members of the Knights of Columbus who, after this date (August, 1970), lose their lives as a result of criminal violence while in the lawful performance of their duties as law enforcement officers or who, after this date, become totally and permanently disabled as a result of such service, in accordance with the well established rules governing Educational Trust Fund scholarships. The Board of Directors may limit the payments from such Fund to or for such children to the difference between the amount which they are entitled to receive under the provisions of any law presently existing or hereafter enacted (or other Governmental grant, whether by Federal governments, or some other including a state, province or local municipality) and the amount which they would be entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, if the payments under said law or laws were not available to them.

The effect of the above may in the future benefit the children of some Agent who dies from criminal violence. We keep no index to identify which of our Special Agents belong to the Knights of Columbus. However, if an Agent dies under such circumstances the personnel status form in the personnel file calls for listings of organizational memberships and we would therefore be able to identify such Agent as being a member of the Knights of Columbus. Re: Deaths of Special Agents two Agents who were shot and killed by a criminal were Edwin R. Woodruffe and Anthony Palmisano and their deaths occurred on 1-8-69; there have been none since then. Based on previous statistics the number of such cases who might qualify should be quite few. In the event one qualifies in the future the Knights of Columbus should be notified of the circumstances and be furnished the name and address of the surviving widow and the names and ages of the dependent children. Mr. John W. McDevitt is the Supreme Knight, Knights of Columbus, Columbus Plaza, New Haven, Connecticut 06507. This is the national headquarters of the organization.

RECOMMENDATION:

That in those cases where Agents lose their lives as a result of criminal violence while in lawful performance of their duty, have eligible children, and have membership in the Knights of Columbus listed on their personnel status forms, authority be granted to notify Knights of Columbus as indicated in paragraph preceding recommendation.

Attached is a copy of the Supreme Council Proceedings at their August, 1970, convention in Houston, Texas. On page 36 there are some observations on justice in which you are quoted and which reflect agreement with your position.

Also of interest is Resolution No. 204 on page 176, which provides that children of members of the Knights of Columbus who are killed in line of duty while law enforcement officers will be provided with a free college education. It is not known how many Agents are members of the Knights, but it is possible that this should be kept in mind in the event one of them is killed or permanently disabled.
